

NC OBJECTIVES	KEY KNOWLEDGE AND VOCABULARY
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Name and locate counties and cities of the United Kingdom, geographical regions and their identifying human and physical characteristics, key topographical features (including hills, mountains, coasts and rivers), and land-use patterns; and understand how some of these aspects have changed over time Develop their use of geographical knowledge, understanding and skills to enhance their locational and place knowledge. Understand geographical similarities and differences through the study of human and physical geography of a region of the United Kingdom 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Know how to find Hull in an atlas Know how to find Scotland in an atlas Know how to find East Yorkshire in an atlas Know how to find Highlands and Islands region in an atlas Know the physical features of Scotland and Highlands and Islands Know the physical features of Hull and the surrounding area Know about the human features of Hull and Inverness Know how to use large a OS map of Inverness to identify significant places Know how to use a large scale OS map of Edinburgh to identify significant places Know how to use co-ordinates on a map to locate places Compare the significant places (physical and human features) of Hull and East Yorkshire; and Inverness and Highlands and Islands Use aerial photographs and satellite images to identify human and physical features of Hull and France Know and compare the accents and dialects used in Hull and Scotland Know and compare the population of the England and Scotland; and Hull and a number of Scottish cities Know and compare the religion of the England and Scotland Know and compare the food and drink of the England and Scotland Know and compare the weather and climate of Hull and Glasgow; and Hull and Aberdeen Know that England is made up of 48 counties. Some counties have a coastline and others don't. Scafell Pike is the highest mountain in England. The River Thames is the longest river in England and flows through London Know that Hull is in the county of East Yorkshire Know and label the counties of England on a map Know that Scotland is made up of three areas – The Highlands and Islands; the Central Lowlands and the Southern Uplands. The mountain ranges in the Highlands are the Grampians, the Cuillins and the Cairngorms. Ben Nevis is the highest mountain in the UK. Scotland has 790 islands, however only around 95 of these have people living on them. The Uplands have ranges of hills like the Galloway Hills and the Lammermuir Hills. They all have coastlines, rivers and lochs Know the four points of a compass – North, South, East, West Use the points of a compass to follow or give directions Know how to draw a sketch map from a high viewpoint of Hull City Centre Use aerial and oblique photographs to identify features