Mountbatten Primary school Newsletter

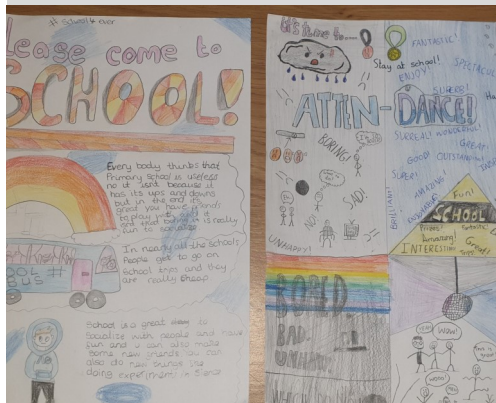

Be the best we can be!

Our assembly topic next week is: Continuing our Group Challenge

The children in FS2 had a brilliant healthy teddy bears picnic! Lots of children tried new food and enjoyed it with their friends and their teddy bears!

We welcomed ex-GB Badminton player Jenny Wallwork into our whole school assembly. She talked about the importance of a healthy lifestyle, resilience and perseverance to succeed and achieve the goals that we set ourselves.

We are taking part in the Attendance poster competition as part of the Hull City Council Every Day Counts campaign. We have had lots of brilliant entries—Fingers crossed a winner is chosen from Mountbatten!

Designated Roles:

Mr A Ali—Executive Headteacher and Deputy CEO of Venn Academy Trust

Miss L Pitts—Deputy Headteacher and Safeguarding Lead

Mr J Wegg—KS2 Phase Leader and Assistant Headteacher

Miss J Schofield—KS1 Phase Leader, SENCO and part of the Safeguarding team

Miss M Legg—EYFS Phase Leader

Mrs C Little—Safeguarding Deputy Lead, Behaviour and Social Emotional Lead

Message from the school:

We currently have a focus on times tables across the school to ensure that pupils can recall them quickly.

We use Times Table Rock Stars in school and pupils can access this at home. Please ask your child's class teacher about how to do this.

The pupils are very competitive and love to beat the teachers!
